

MEDIA

Since you first heard about the coronavirus, how closely have you been following updates and seeking new information about the outbreak?

Thinking about TV, newspaper (print and digital) and websites, from where are you primarily getting your news related to the coronavirus?

To what extent is the media coverage over- or under-representing the level of concern associated with the coronavirus?

